

Announcement of King Mongkut's University of Technology Thonburi
Measures and surveillance of novel coronavirus 2019 (COVID-19) No. 6
Updated and Revised: How to conduct the classes, examinations and assessment of learning outcomes

As the Cabinet resolved on Tuesday 17, March 2020 to launch rigorous measures to surmount the current COVID-19 crisis, by virtue of Section 24 and Section 27 of King Mongkut's University of Technology Thonburi ACT, B.E. 2541, the University has thus announced how to conduct classes, examinations and assessment of learning outcomes to prevent the outbreak of the novel coronavirus 2019 (COVID-19) for the remaining duration of Semester 2/2019.

The first and second clauses stipulated in the Announcement of Measures and Surveillance of novel coronavirus (COVID-19) No. 5 regarding how to conduct the classes, examination and assessment of learning outcomes are now superseded by the followings.

Managing lecture-based classes and practice sessions

1. Lecturers are to conduct online classes for all undergraduate and graduate courses which can be live teaching (Live), prerecorded video and audio files or any multimedia for students to access (On demand) to provide lectures and demonstrations which can start from Wednesday 18, March, 2020.

2. As for a lecture class for over one hundred students, online class can be conducted following the timetable or on any day irrespective of its original timetable starting from Wednesday, 18 March 2020. Please ensure that all students are informed of a new timetable in advance.

The rest of the previous announcement remains the same.

Announced on March 17, 2020

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Suwit Saetia".

(Assoc. Prof. Dr. Suwit Saetia)
President of KMUTT